Tokyo 2020 Has Begun and NCAA Student-Athletes Are Going for GOLD 🏆

Current, Former and Incoming Student-Athletes Are Going for GOLD

Reaching the Olympics is the ultimate accomplishment for many athletes, and for the vast majority of the U.S. national team and many international athletes, college sports played a key role in that dream. At the 2020 Summer Games, 75% of the U.S. national team — and more than 1,000 Olympians overall — competed in college before experiencing Olympic glory. On those campuses, they received the coaching, training opportunities and competitive experience that developed them into elite athletes. Check out the full list of student-athletes competing for a medal this year!
